

Note: dates and/or locations of sessions are subject to change. Refer to www.OntarioSheep.org/master-shepherds-course for the most up to date information.

	Module theme – key topic areas	Date	Early individual module registration deadline ¹	Location
Module 6	Predation & Pasture Management Coyote behaviour and biology; raven behaviour and biology / Options for managing predation / what can I do legally? / Deadstock disposal methods / Wildlife Damage Compensation Program Pasture management strategies for quality feed / perennials, annuals, covercrops / fencing options / watering systems / managing parasites /	April 17 and 18, 2019	April 2, 2019	Kingston
Module 7	Genetics Heritability of economically important traits / Genetic selection principles / Crossbreeding for improved production / Hybrid vigour & inbreeding / Genetic improvement programs	May 29 and 30, 2019	May 14, 2019	Lindsay
Module 8	Infrastructure & feeding systems Planning efficient farmstead layouts / Ventilation, watering systems, supplementary heat / Handling systems, sheep behavior /Nutrient management / Feed storage, feed delivery systems / Pasture infrastructure	July 10 and 11, 2019	June 25, 2019	Newmarket
Module 9	Effective flock health management Flock health programs, using vet diagnostic services / Impact and management of production limiting diseases / Vaccinations and immunity Role of nutrition in flock health / Parasite Management	August 21 and 22, 2019	August 6, 2019	Elora

Questions?

Contact the Master Shepherd's Course Program Co-ordinator | E: mastershepherd@ontariosheep.org | P: 519.836.0043 x322

¹ Individual module registration fees increase if registering within two weeks of the module start date.